BLOOD FEUD #1
ONI

Cullen Bunn, Drew Moss

I've got a story to tell-a story about how me and a couple of poker buddies squared off against the very legions of Hell ...and maybe even saved the world. Like all good yarns, this one has its share of action, adventure, mystery, and romance. As for how it ends, though, you'll have to judge for yourself. Me, I've always been partial to happy endings-the singing cowboy riding off into the sunset-but I reckon that just ain't the way of the world. This story's got vampires, too, loads of them, but not in the beginning. It began, for us at least, with spiders.

THE END OF AN ERA AS ACE COMICS RELAUNCHES?

This month sees a memorable event: the ACE Advance Order Catalogue, which is currently numbered #485, is facing a re-launch. Move over Marvel, step aside DC, the big boys are in the field.

When ACE started our advance order service it was before Diamond Comics existed, before Previews was a twinkle in Steve Geppi's eye, thus our issue number is higher than Previews. The Previews catalogue is up to #325, a long way behind us. However, we are going to re-launch not with a tawdry #1 exploitation, but at #326. We are doing as comic companies did in the 1940s. Back then new launches never had a #1. They started at #10 or #23, anything but #1. The readers in those less sophisticated times preferred established titles and were not keen to try a first issue.

Actually this is a lead into our new, soon to be on-line, Previews Order System. Currently all of our customer orders are being placed on this cloud-based system and we are attempting to make sure all the little bugs are ironed out. Once the testing is done and we go live, all customers will be able to have access to their own account and place their orders directly, authorise payments and make amendments themselves up until a short time before the comics are published. Key to this system is to make the Previews issue number the driving number. This will be a market leader product and we are all extremely excited at the impact this will have.

MARVEL-LOUS

Back in the real world of comics, Marvel have unveiled their new titles and as the daylight hours dim October will be lit up by the relaunched Marvel books. Much loved characters get a make over and each new series is to be easy for all readers to access.

My life long favourite title is Daredevil - I am that old I have been reading this from #1 in 1964! He is returning, this time with a protégé. There has been much speculation as to who this is, but current thinking is it is Stick's son (Stick being Matt Murdock's mentor, as introduced retrospectively in #176 by Frank Miller). Initial thoughts were it was Gambit as the art found online looks remarkably like the Ragin' Cajun. The comic world waits, or at least I do, with bated breath to see what is in store for Matt Murdock.

My personal top ten are : Daredevil, Deadpool, Dr Strange, Illuminati, Nova, Old Man Logan, Spider-

Gwen, Amazing Spider-Man, The Mighty Thor, Venom: Space Knight.

My tip for first cancellation: Howling Commandos Of SHIELD.

Worst title: The Totally Awesome Hulk (a great creative team though - Greg Pak and Frank Cho)

A GREAT TIME TO BE READING COMICS

October is going to be an exciting month. There is all the above happening plus lots of great titles from DC, Image, IDW, Dark Horse, Valiant, Oni Press, Dynamic Enterprises and Boom!

This is a great time to be reading comics, trust me, I have been reading comics long enough to know.

Finally, your mission this month; introduce your nieces, nephews, grand children, neighbours friends to comics. The result can be greatly rewarding. My grand daughter Amy (five years old) was given Minions

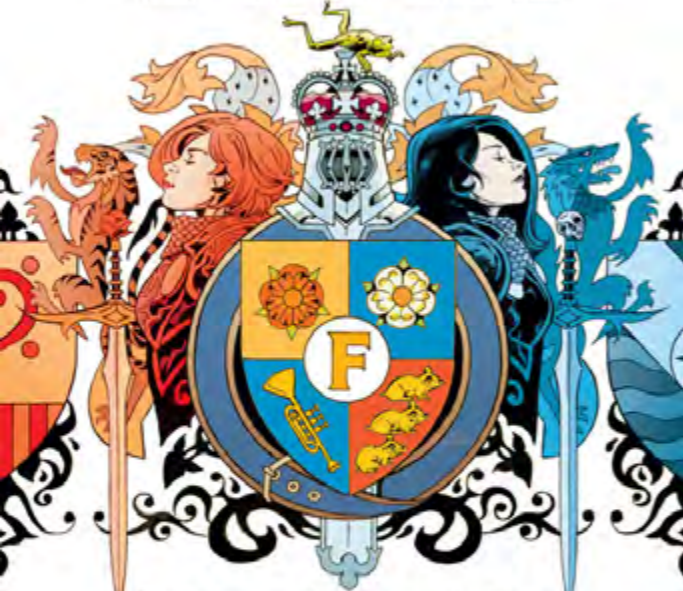

#2 and is now reading this every day. The comic is well read and soon to be torn, but, and this is important, it is loved for what it is, escapist entertainment. No mylar bag and backing board for this comic!
